Plaintiff Paul Erias Stelly, Sr., a state prisoner, filed this civil rights complaint when he was housed at San Quentin State Prison (SQSP). He alleged that prison officials at SQSP were deliberately indifferent to his medical needs. On November 25, 2008, the Court issued an Order of Dismissal with Leave to Amend. On December 8, 2008, Plaintiff filed his amended complaint, which the Court now reviews to determine whether it states cognizable claims for relief.

DISCUSSION

In its November 25, 2008 Order, the Court indicated that, in his original complaint, Plaintiff alleged that Defendants were deliberately indifferent to his serious medical needs because he was deprived of psychiatric and medical treatment, beginning in February, 2008. The Court dismissed with leave to amend the deliberate indifference claim because: (1) Plaintiff failed to allege specifically how each named defendant actually and proximately caused the deprivation of a federally protected right. (Nov. 25, 2008 Order at 4-5 (citing Leer v. Murphy, 844 F.2d 628, 634 (9th Cir. 1988)).) Plaintiff named SQSP Chief Medical Officer

1 Elaine Tootell; SQSP Head of Psychiatric Department Larry Dizman; 2 SQSP Head of Mental Health and Chief Psychologist E. Monthei; and 3 SQSP Acting Health Care Receiver Manager Timothy Rougeux as 4 Defendants; however, these Defendants were not linked specifically 5 to the allegations in the body of the complaint. The Court noted 6 that Plaintiff seemed to be alleging that the named Defendants were 7 liable as supervisors. However, Plaintiff was warned that a 8 supervisor generally is only liable for constitutional violations 9 of his subordinates if the supervisor "participated in or directed 10 the violations, or knew of the violations and failed to act to 11 prevent them." (Nov. 25, 2008 Order at 5 (quoting Taylor v. List, 12 880 F.2d 1040, 1045 (9th Cir. 1989)).) The Court instructed 13 Plaintiff, in his amended complaint, to allege facts supporting his 14 claim against each individual Defendant by listing the 15 constitutional right that Defendant violated. The Court also noted 16 that Plaintiff had not shown that he had exhausted administrative 17 remedies on his claims, which must be done prior to filing them in 18 federal court. The Court granted Plaintiff leave to amend to 19 provide copies of denials of his appeals at the Director's level of 20 review which would indicate administrative exhaustion.

21 On December 8, 2008, Plaintiff filed his amended complaint.
22 Plaintiff contends he filed administrative appeals (grievances) on 23 the issues in his amended complaint, which have never been 24 answered. It thus appears he has not exhausted his administrative 25 remedies as required by 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a). If the allegations 26 that his appeals have not been answered are true, however, it may 27 be that administrative remedies are not "available" within the 28

1 meaning of the statute. Therefore, the Court concludes that, for 2 the purposes of this preliminary review of Plaintiff's amended 3 complaint, he has satisfactorily provided evidence showing that he 4 could be excused from the exhaustion requirement because prison
5 officials refused to process his appeals. This is an issue better 6 resolved at a later stage of the case.

7 In his amended complaint, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants 8 Tootell, Dizman, Monthei and Rougeux "kept [him] from going through 9 various level[s] of appeal, and thereby exhausting my remedies by 10 conventional means, after demonstrating an indifference to [his] 11 serous medical and mental health needs." (Am. Compl. at 4.)

12 Plaintiff further states:

13 Each defendant failed to assess me, when obvious medical 14 and mental health disorders were occurring and further 15 failed to notify or designate mental and medical health 16 subordinates to render assessments and treatment for 17 prolonged period of times. In addition, each defendant 18 may have known, or should have known that exhausting my 19 remedies would be essential should I follow through with further legal action. Nevertheless each of these Defendants were in receipt of my inmate appeal forms (602's), my inmate request forms for medical care, or had knowledge of my repeated requests for medical and mental health care, but failed to act to prevent further delay in providing me medical and mental health care.

20 (Id.) Plaintiff specifically claims that: (1) Defendant Tootell 21 failed to respond to his appeal or provide timely medical treatment 22 for his "Temporal Lobe Epilepsy," or "Hepatitis C;" (2) Defendants 23 Monthei and Dizman failed to respond to his appeal or provide 24 timely psychiatric treatment for his depression; and (3) Defendant 25 Rougeux failed to forward his appeal forms "to their appropriate 26 entity" by "willfully postpon[ing] processing of [his] requests for 27 an assessment or treatments for Medical and Mental Health Care."
28

1 (Id.)

2 A supervisor may be liable under section 1983 upon a showing 3 of (1) personal involvement in the constitutional deprivation or 4 (2) a sufficient causal connection between the supervisor's 5 wrongful conduct and the constitutional violation. Redman v.
6 County of San Diego, 942 F.2d 1435, 1446 (9th Cir. 1991) (en banc) 7 (citation omitted). As mentioned above, a supervisor therefore 8 generally "is only liable for constitutional violations of his 9 subordinates if the supervisor participated in or directed the 10 violations, or knew of the violations and failed to act to prevent 11 them." Taylor, 880 F.2d at 1045. An administrator may be liable 12 for deliberate indifference to a serious medical need, for 13 instance, if he or she fails to respond to a prisoner's request for 14 help. Jett v. Penner, 439 F.3d 1091, 1098 (9th Cir. 2006).
15 "'Supervisory liability is imposed against a supervisory official 16 in his individual capacity for his own culpable action or inaction 17 in the training, supervision, or control of his subordinates, for 18 his acquiescence in the constitutional deprivations of which the 19 complaint is made, or for conduct that showed a reckless or callous 20 indifference to the rights of others.'" Preschooler II v. Davis, 21 479 F.3d 1175, 1183 (9th Cir. 2007) (citations omitted). Evidence 22 of a prisoner's letter to an administrator alerting him to a 23 constitutional violation is sufficient to generate a genuine issue 24 of material fact as to whether the administrator was aware of the 25 violation, even if he denies knowledge and there is no evidence the 26 letter was received. Jett, 439 F.3d at 1098. Evidence that a 27 prison supervisor was personally involved in an unconstitutional 28

1 transfer and denied all appeals of the transfer, for example, may 2 suffice. Hamilton v. Endell, 981 F.2d 1062, 1067 (9th Cir. 1992);
3 see also Watkins v. City of Oakland, 145 F.3d 1087, 1093 (9th Cir.
4 1998) (supervisor who signed internal affairs report dismissing 5 complaint against officer despite evidence of officer's use of 6 excessive force may be liable for damages).

7 Read liberally, the allegations in Plaintiff's amended 8 complaint may state a deliberate indifference claim against 9 Defendants Tootell, Dizman, Monthei and Rougeux who reviewed 10 Plaintiff's appeals and did not remedy the constitutional 11 violation. Therefore, this claim may proceed against these 12 Defendants.

13 CONCLUSION

14 For the foregoing reasons, the Court orders as follows:

15 1. Plaintiff states a cognizable claim for deliberate 16 indifference to his serious medical needs against Defendants 17 Tootell, Dizman, Monthei and Rougeux.

18 2. The Clerk of the Court shall mail a Notice of Lawsuit and 19 Request for Waiver of Service of Summons, two copies of the Waiver 20 of Service of Summons, a copy of the complaint (docket no. 1), the 21 amended complaint (docket no. 19) and all attachments thereto along 22 with a copy of this Order to Chief Medical Officer Elaine Tootell, 23 Head of Psychiatric Department Larry Dizman, Head of Mental Health
24 and Chief Psychologist E. Monthei, and Acting Health Care Receiver
25 Manager Timothy Rougeux at SQSP. The Clerk shall also mail copies 26 of these documents to the Attorney General of the State of 27 California. In addition, the Clerk shall serve a copy of this 28

1 Order on Plaintiff.

2       3. Defendants are cautioned that Rule 4 of the Federal Rules
3 of Civil Procedure requires them to cooperate in saving unnecessary 4 costs of service of the summons and complaint. Pursuant to Rule 4, 5 if any Defendant, after being notified of this action and asked by 6 the Court, on behalf of Plaintiff, to waive service of the summons, 7 fails to do so, said Defendant will be required to bear the cost of 8 such service unless good cause be shown for his failure to sign and 9 return the waiver form. If service is waived, this action will 10 proceed as if Defendant had been served on the date that the waiver 11 is filed, except that pursuant to Rule 12(a)(1)(B), Defendants will 12 not be required to serve and file an answer before sixty (60) days 13 from the date on which the request for waiver was sent. (This 14 allows a longer time to respond than would be required if formal 15 service of summons is necessary.) Defendants are asked to read the 16 statement set forth at the foot of the waiver form that more 17 completely describes the duties of the parties with regard to 18 waiver of service of the summons. If service is waived after the 19 date provided in the Notice but before Defendants have been 20 personally served, the Answer shall be due sixty (60) days from the 21 date on which the request for waiver was sent or twenty (20) days 22 from the date the waiver form is filed, whichever is later.

23       4. Defendants shall answer the complaint in accordance with 24 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The following briefing 25 schedule shall govern dispositive motions in this action:

26           a. No later than ninety (90) days from the date of this 27 Order, Defendants shall file a motion for summary judgment or other 28

1 dispositive motion. The motion shall be supported by adequate 2 factual documentation and shall conform in all respects to Federal 3 Rule of Civil Procedure 56. If Defendants are of the opinion that 4 this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment, they shall so 5 inform the Court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is 6 due. All papers filed with the Court shall be promptly served on 7 Plaintiff.

8           b. Plaintiff's opposition to the dispositive motion 9 shall be filed with the Court and served on Defendants no later 10 than sixty (60) days after the date on which Defendants' motion is 11 filed. The Ninth Circuit has held that the following notice 12 regarding summary judgment motions should be given to plaintiffs:

13           The defendants have made a motion for summary 14 judgment by which they seek to have your case dismissed.
15 A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

16           Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to 17 oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary 18 judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue 19 of material fact--that is, if there is no real dispute 20 about any fact that would affect the result of your case, 21 the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to 22 judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case.
23 When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary 24 judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or 25 other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what 26 your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted in favor of defendants, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

27 Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc).

1 Plaintiff is advised to read Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of 2 Civil Procedure and Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 106 S.
3 Ct. 2548, 91 L. Ed. 2d 265 (1986) (party opposing summary judgment 4 must come forward with evidence showing triable issues of material 5 fact on every essential element of his claim). Plaintiff is 6 cautioned that because he bears the burden of proving his 7 allegations in this case, he must be prepared to produce evidence 8 in support of those allegations when he files his opposition to 9 Defendants' dispositive motion. Such evidence may include sworn 10 declarations from himself and other witnesses to the incident, and 11 copies of documents authenticated by sworn declaration. Plaintiff 12 will not be able to avoid summary judgment simply by repeating the 13 allegations of his complaint.

14 c. If Defendants wish to file a reply brief, they shall 15 do so no later than thirty (30) days after the date Plaintiff's 16 opposition is filed.

17 d. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date 18 the reply brief is due. No hearing will be held on the motion 19 unless the Court so orders at a later date.

20 5. Discovery may be taken in accordance with the Federal 21 Rules of Civil Procedure. Leave of Court pursuant to Rule 30(a)(2) 22 is hereby granted to Defendants to depose Plaintiff and any other 23 necessary witnesses confined in prison.

24 6. All communications by Plaintiff with the Court must be 25 served on Defendants, or their counsel once counsel has been 26 designated, by mailing a true copy of the document to Defendants or 27 their counsel.
28

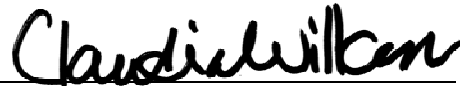

1           7. It is Plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case.
2 Plaintiff must keep the Court informed of any change of address and 3 must comply with the Court's orders in a timely fashion. Failure 4 to do so may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to 5 prosecute pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

6           8. Extensions of time are not favored, though reasonable 7 extensions will be granted. However, the party making a motion for 8 an extension of time is not relieved from his or her duty to comply 9 with the deadlines set by the Court merely by having made a motion 10 for an extension of time. The party making the motion must still 11 meet the deadlines set by the Court until an order addressing the 12 motion for an extension of time is issued. Any motion for an 13 extension of time must be filed no later than fifteen (15) days 14 prior to the deadline sought to be extended.

15           IT IS SO ORDERED.
